

Senate Resolution (2024:3)

Title: Academic Update Q&A
Author: President Brady Compaan
Date: February 6, 2024

- Whereas: The Office of the Provost sent an email to all APU students on November 15, 2023, announcing the ongoing projects regarding program review and school/college realignment; and,
- Whereas: This email created confusion among students and prompted the spread of misinformation surrounding these projects, creating panic and distrust among the student body; and,
- Whereas: SGA was in-the-know regarding these projects and understood both the rationale of the administrative decisions and the disruption among the student body; and,
- Whereas: SGA's role is to bridge the gap between the student body and the faculty, staff, and administration of the university; and,
- Whereas: SGA had the opportunity to serve the student body by addressing these prevalent and pressing student concerns through fulfilling this stated role; therefore,
- Be It Resolved: SGA hosted an Academic Update Q&A with President Adam J. Morris and Provost Anita Fitzgerald Henck and created a space in which students could directly ask university administrators what the academic changes mean and how they will affect the student experience; and,
- Be It Further Resolved: SGA will continue to serve as the liaison for student concerns regarding the academic update and continue to partner with university administration to ease the spread of misinformation present in all-student communications.

---

Brady Compaan
SGA President

---

Date